

OF COMMITMENT

ABSTRACT

Someone commits. Someone commits not. Someone keeps promise. Someone keeps not. Someone intentionally does not keep commitment. Even someone does not commit intentionally in spite of having capacity. Then none can blame him. To commit or not to commit and to keep or not to keep is a personality trait. This positive attitude is one of the most precious ingredients of a character that offers its uniqueness which builds up personality that determines individual difference. Such trait enriches the solvency of a character. It manifests values and ethics as well. He who keeps commitment is honored everywhere. If anybody fails to keep promise he is hated by all. Thus he becomes valueless in spite of being rich.

Keywords: Commitment, Promise, Personality Trait, Character.

INTRODUCTION

Creative writing is based more on manifestation rather than on expression. It does not inform rather it reveals, so it bears no reference. The best creative writing is critical, and the best critical writing is creative. The present article is the outcome of creative writing meant for lay readers. As such free style is the methodology adopted so that the pleasure of reading can be enjoyed by the common mass. As you know well that, Francis Bacon (1561-1626), the immortal writer, wrote many essays, and notably "Of Love", "Of Friendship", "Of Ambition", "Of Studies", etc. The myriad-minded genius rightly pointed out that all the words of the dictionary can be the themes of essays one can write. But little has been done, in this regard since his death, in order to finish his unfinished monumental works. In fact Bacon's way of presentation and his unique style kindled imagination and inspired me to write essays, in the light of creative writing, thus to get relief through Catharsis.

ARTICLE

Commitment is a thing one has promised to do. It is the state of being willing to give a lot of time, work, energy, etc to something. It is an engagement or obligation, especially financial, that restricts freedom of action. It is official consignment by court order of a person as to prison or a mental hospital. It is the act of sending proposed legislation to a committee.

Someone commits. Someone commits not. Someone keeps promise. Someone keeps not.

Someone intentionally does not keep commitment. Even someone does not commit intentionally in spite of having capacity. Then none can blame him. To commit or not to commit and to keep or not to keep is a personality trait.

This positive attitude is one of the most precious ingredients of a character that offers its uniqueness which builds up personality that determines individual difference. Such trait enriches the solvency of a character. It manifests values and ethics as well. He who keeps commitment is honored everywhere. If anybody fails to keep promise he is hated by all. Thus he becomes valueless in spite of being rich.

Some community is famous for keeping commitment. They can even welcome death instead of promise. Regarding financial matter such a character is akin to a banker. They are so reliable. They care for man seldom for money. They consider man costlier than money. They know that money can be earned but mind cannot be conquered easily. As such they run after man, seldom money. Rather, money runs after them.

As modernism appeared commitment disappeared simultaneously. Now commitment, reliability, authenticity, ethics, values, goodness, greatness, etc. have become fossils and objects for museum for preservation. In politics the word commitment is absent and absurd. Politics is based on strategy. This strategy argues that politics means poly tricks or polite and tricks. Now if any body intends to commit anything and tries to keep it then he is considered as a fool. In politics there is no permanent friend or permanent foe. Only there is permanent interest.

Commitment offers confidence which is the asset of life. It acts as a brake of emotion and saves the image from breakage. A man rises till he keeps commitment and experiences downfall when keeps it not. Love lasts till commitment lasts. Live together is the contribution of modernism. It is the worst example of fake. It has no base as well as no brake at all. It is so fragile. As such the homes for orphans become overcrowded. Thus live together is not illegal, but it is immoral.

CONCLUSIONS

Child is the future of any nation. Such orphans being deprived of mothers' affection become prodigal. The prodigal children are not asset rather liability to the society thereby the whole nation at large. This happens since the couple does not commit each other. Use and throw are their policy. This is their mutual agreement. So, none blames none. They are interested to build their career even on the destruction of moral values the most precious ingredient of commitment.
