ABSTRACT:

There are two types of friends viz., class friend and glass friend. The relation between two class friends may not last long. The paradox is that glass is brittle but the relation between two glass friends is permanent. For, a drunkard is convinced by a bottle of wine easily. Here lies the uniqueness of convince.

INTRODUCTION

Creative writing is based more on manifestation rather than on expression. It does not inform, rather it reveals. So it bears no reference. The best creative writing is critical, and the best critical writing is creative. This article is an outcome of thinking about creative writing meant for a general readership. As such, I have adopted a free style methodology so that everyone can enjoy the pleasure of reading. As you might know, Francis Bacon (1561-1626), the immortal essayist, wrote many essays namely 'Of Love', 'Of Friendship', 'Of Ambition', 'Of Studies', and so on. The multiple-minded genius correctly pointed out that all the words of the dictionary can be used as themes for essays. But little has been done since his death to continue or finish his monumental task. Bacon's unique individual style of presentation ignited my imagination and encouraged me to write creative essays as a method of relieving a wide range of emotions through catharsis.

ARTICLE

Convince is to cause somebody to believe that something is the case. For example: How can I convince you of her honesty? What she said convinced me that I had been wrong. It is to persuade somebody to do something. For example: What convinced you to vote for them?

Convince is to persuade by argument or proof e.g. to convince a person of his folly. It, now obsolete, is to prove or find guilty. It is to vanquish. It is to overcome, confute, or convict. It is to overcome the doubts of. It is to make feel sure.

Convince is to persuade a person to believe or realize firmly the truth. For example: I failed to convince him of his mistake. It is to overcome, get the better of. It is to subdue the mind of by evidence. It is to satisfy as to truth or error. As per Bible it is to convict. It, now obsolete, is to refute.

Convinced is completely sure about something. For example: I am convinced of her innocence/convinced that she is innocent. It is firm in one's belief e.g. a convinced Christian; a convinced pacifist.

Convincing is that makes somebody believe something or persuade somebody e.g. a convincing speech/argument/assurance/lie.

Convincing is causing one to feel sure or to believe or agree. It is persuading as by evidence. It is cogent. It is producing conviction. It is certain, positive, beyond doubt. It is by a large or significant margin. It is leaving no margin of doubt, substantial e.g. a convincing victory i.e. an easy one.

Convincingly means hope for positive outcome. For example: Her case was convincingly argued.

Convincement is especially of religious conviction.

Someone can convince. Someone can't. It is a personality trait. Pleasing personality accelerates it. Intelligence strengthens it. Wisdom confirms it. Beautiful face can convince easily. As such hero or heroine i.e. glamour world is used for promotional purpose while launching any new product.

All cannot convince. All cannot be convinced. Someone is convinced and benefit is obtained thereby. Someone is not convinced thereby favour remains out of reach. A status concerned person seldom thinks for convincing. He always depends on his personal capacity. He contends that one can earn more by the time used for convincing. This strategy has immense impact upon the person who declined to be convinced. In future the person can be convinced easily. He will not enjoy sadistic pleasure declining the request further. Also he will think if he does not consider then the opponent will do without his help. Further his help will pave the way for future reciprocation.

A person is well advised not to be convinced without realizing the matter or manner. Then he can ask for time to think over the issue in question. If the person has lack of knowledge then he can take help either from a professional person or a well-wisher.

Before signing any contract the person in question should be convinced properly. Someone is convinced but declines to sign at the final moment. Thus mood and motive of man is gloriously so uncertain. As such a vacillating character should be handled with utmost care and caution. So a wise person becomes sure and certain first then proceeds for implementation of contract. Business and especially marriage convincement are very crucial. Otherwise all arrangement will be of no use except simply wastage of money and time as well.

An optimist considers convincement as positive venture. As such one should not be afraid before convincing any person. Obviously, outcome of convincing is confirmed only when argument is purely based on logic.

There are two types of persons. The first category is convinced easily. The second category is not convinced easily. The merit of first category is that he is convinced easily. The demerit of first category is that he is convinced easily. Such a dual character is so unique that he possesses both merit and demerit simultaneously. He is just like a floating voter of any election in democracy set up. Thus he is convinced by the campaign of the first political party. In the next very moment he is convinced by the second political party. In fact, he has no locus standee at all. As such his mood and motif are gloriously so uncertain. And the fate of any politician is determined by these voters. They are real king maker. As such even a shrewd politician fails to gauge the pulse of these unpredictable voters.

Different persons are convinced differently. Someone is convinced by logic. Someone is convinced by magic. Someone is convinced by none of these two options. Ugly person though wise cannot convince a heroine who is always convinced by a smart guy. Beautiful face can convince easily even a wise person. Here beauty is the convincing tool.

Again someone can be convinced by emotion. Someone is convinced by motion. Someone is convinced by sexual pleasure. Someone is convinced by bribe. Someone may be convinced either by cash or kind. Generally, an intelligent boss is so kind that he accepts only cash. He avoids the hazards of enchasing of any kind.

Someone pre-decides to be convinced. Someone pre-decides not to be convinced. Thus the second category is difficult to convince. For, it is difficult to make unwilling horse drink water.

CONCLUSION

There are two types of friend's viz., class friend and glass friend. The relation between two class friends may not last long. The paradox is that glass is brittle but the relation between two glass friends is permanent. For, a drunkard is convinced by a bottle of wine easily. Here lies the uniqueness of convince.
